

Cold War Modern

V&A Homepage > Cold War Modern > Events

25 September 2008
- 11 January 2009

The Exhibition Visitor Information Book Tickets Events Shop Competition Google Map Videos

Events

World Cities: Berlin

Saturday 6 December 2008

13.30–16.30, Seminar Room 1, Sackler Centre

Berlin, a European powerhouse, has a significant place in Cold War history. This event explores Berlin's life past and present, including the growth of art and design movements and the thriving cultural scene today. Part of a series introducing the arts, history and culture of world cities speakers include curators, travel writers, authors and historians.

Programme

13:30

Turning Points in the History of Berlin: 1871 - 1989

Dr. Rudolph Muhs
Royal Holloway
University of London

14:15

Berlin 1900–2008: World City, Divided City, Design City

Professor Jeremy Aynsley
Royal College of Art

15:30

Explorers' Berlin: Hidden Corners of the German Metropolis

Duncan J D Smith
Travel Writer and Photohistorian